Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1500 on Friday 05 Nov 2021

UK Outlook for Saturday 20 Nov 2021 to Saturday 4 Dec 2021:
Settled conditions with high pressure most likely through the period. Conditions are likely to be less windy than the previous period overall, with stormy conditions much less likely than normal. Frost and fog becomes increasingly likely, with temperatures slightly colder than average initially with a chance of wintry conditions over northern hills. Overall remaining drier than average throughout this period, with temperatures generally near average.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.